Subject: COST ACTION: European Monetary Unifications from Antiquity to Modern Times (EMU)

I am writing to express the Panteion University's full support for this project, as well as the support of the faculty members of the Department of Social Anthropology.

We believe this is a very important proposal since the issue of monetary union is extremely timely and of most significance for countries such as Greece. We very much welcome its interdisciplinary and international orientation.

We believe that the proposal's wide range of European participants and its high quality will be appreciated and will receive the funding it deserves.

Yours sincerely,

Gerasimos Makris
